

Internship Openings at Morris Arboretum

Duration: One-year, Starts June 18, 2018

Position Type: Full-time, 40 hours per week

Compensation: $12.35 per hour plus benefits including vacation, health insurance and tuition benefits

Application Deadline: February 15, 2018

Job Summary:

The Morris Arboretum of the University of Pennsylvania, a 166-acre public garden in Philadelphia, has nine year-long, full-time internship positions available. The positions are open in education, urban forestry, plant protection, plant propagation, arboriculture, botany, horticulture, natural lands and the rose and flower garden. Interns work alongside experts in the public horticulture field, and take two University of Pennsylvania courses, "Understanding Plants" and "Evaluating Public Gardens." These courses are offered through the Department of Landscape Architecture and Regional Planning at the University of Pennsylvania. Interns receive academic credit for successfully completing these classes.
