COURSE DESCRIPTION

Applying Human Dimensions to Natural Resource Management is a course that will examine the basis of human interactions within the realm of natural resource management. Most of the challenges that lie within natural resource management stem from the root of human value systems. This course is a study of the value that humans have placed on natural resources, and gathering an understanding of how we as natural resource managers can work within the human dimension.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Learn the fundamental principles of human interactions with our natural resources
- Understand the diverse views of visitors, users, and stakeholders of natural resources
- Understand the basic principles surrounding natural resource management
- Understand how to engage visitors, users, and stakeholders in the management process constructively
- Understand how to promote attitudinal and behavioral change

COURSE FORMAT

The format of this course will be based upon minimal lecture, coupled with discussion and readings. It will be expected that all students be actively involved in the course. You will be graded upon your weekly participation in discussions, along with quizzes derived from the lectures and readings. It is my hope that you will learn as much from your colleagues as from your instructor. Lastly, you will have a number of research papers that will directly relate to topics introduced within the content of the course.

COURSE MATERIALS

No textbook is required for this course.

INSTRUCTOR
Trisha Hedin - MS in Environmental Education (University of Wisconsin Stevens Point) BA in Elementary Education (University of Puget Sound). I have been teaching within the public education system since 1991 and over the past 18 years have been teaching environmental education for a variety of non-profit organizations based in Utah. I am currently the Director of Adult Education for the Grand County School District in Moab, Utah, and also a County Commissioner within Grand County. I'm also currently working on my Ph.D. at Utah State University within Environment and Society.

CONTACT

You may contact me via CANVAS messaging. Please expect a response within 24 hours. My office hours are from 8 am-5 pm Monday through Friday at Arches Education Center that is located within Utah State University Moab. You may also contact me via phone at (435) 260-7128 during those same office hours.

GRADING

You will be graded on the following assignments:

- Weekly Discussions (one post required). 13 weeks x 10 points per week = 130 points
- Weekly quizzes that cover the lecture and readings. 13 weeks x 20 points per week = 260 points
- The tragedy of the Commons (research paper) 50 points
- Human Dimensions within Fisheries or Wildlife Management (research paper) 50 points
- Human Dimensions within water/forest/rangeland/or mineral resource management (research paper) 50 points
- Final Exam 100 points

COVID-19 CLASSROOM ACCOMMODATIONS

If you face COVID-19 related challenges and feel you need accommodations, you must request those accommodations by filling out the COVID-19 Questionnaire (https://www.usu.edu/covid-19/questionnaire/index.php). Upon doing so, the University COVID CARE Team (https://www.usu.edu/covid-19/if-you-are-sick/care-team.php) will contact you to determine your needs and how to support you. The CARE Team will also contact your instructors and provide important direction on how best to accommodate your needs. For additional reference, please see USU's Attendance and Excused Absence (https://catalog.usu.edu/content.php?catoid=12&navoid=3160) policy and the COVID-19 Classroom Accommodations (https://www.usu.edu/covid-19/operations/accomodations) page.

REDUCING COVID-19 RISK
You can help keep classes, events, and activities happening in person this semester by following these steps:

1. Get vaccinated if you're able. Vaccines are the best available tool to help stop the spread of COVID-19. They are safe, free, and easy to access.

2. If you are vaccinated, let USU know. Please upload your proof of full vaccination (http://aggiehealth.usu.edu/) to AggieHealth. If you are exposed to COVID-19, USU’s case containment will not require you to quarantine if they know you are vaccinated and you do not have symptoms.

3. Stay home if you're sick and get tested for COVID-19 if you have symptoms or have been exposed. It’s important to not bring any illness to campus.

4. Wear a mask indoors. Public health experts recommend that even vaccinated people wear masks indoors in high COVID-19 transmission areas, which includes most of Utah.

If USU’s COVID Case Containment team identifies an uncontained situation in the classroom, you will be notified of any temporary changes to your course delivery method through a Canvas announcement. Please make sure you are receiving immediate notifications of new Canvas announcements. The situation will be handled according to protocols on the COVID Classroom Exposure (https://www.usu.edu/covid-19/students/classroom-exposure) page.

Class Seating Charts (For In-Person Classes)

In classes with more than 10 students, a seating chart will be used to track where you are sitting. After the first week of classes, your instructor will tell you how to enter your seat number in Canvas. You must sit in the same seat for the rest of the semester. This is extremely important for tracking cases of COVID-19 and helping classes remain in person.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Academic freedom is the right to teach, study, discuss, investigate, discover, create, and publish freely. Academic freedom protects the rights of faculty members in teaching and of students in learning. Freedom in research is fundamental to the advancement of truth. Faculty members are entitled to full freedom in teaching, research, and creative activities, subject to the limitations imposed by professional responsibility. Faculty Code Policy #403 (http://www.usu.edu/hr/files/uploads/Policies/403.pdf) further defines academic freedom and professional responsibilities.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY – "THE HONOR SYSTEM"

Each student has the right and duty to pursue his or her academic experience free of dishonesty. To enhance the learning environment at Utah State University and to develop student academic integrity, each student agrees to the following Honor Pledge:
"I pledge, on my honor, to conduct myself with the foremost level of academic integrity."

A student who lives by the Honor Pledge is a student who does more than not cheat, falsify, or plagiarize. A student who lives by the Honor Pledge:

- Espouses academic integrity as an underlying and essential principle of the Utah State University community;
- Understands that each act of academic dishonesty devalues every degree that is awarded by this institution; and
- Is a welcomed and valued member of Utah State University.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The instructor of this course will take appropriate actions in response to Academic Dishonesty, as defined the University’s Student Code. Acts of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to:

- Cheating: using, attempting to use, or providing others with any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, examinations, or in any other academic exercise or activity. Unauthorized assistance includes:
  - Working in a group when the instructor has designated that the quiz, test, examination, or any other academic exercise or activity be done “individually;”
  - Depending on the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments;
  - Substituting for another student, or permitting another student to substitute for oneself, in taking an examination or preparing academic work;
  - Acquiring tests or other academic material belonging to a faculty member, staff member, or another student without express permission;
  - Continuing to write after time has been called on a quiz, test, examination, or any other academic exercise or activity;
  - Submitting substantially the same work for credit in more than one class, except with prior approval of the instructor; or engaging in any form of research fraud.

- Falsification: altering or fabricating any information or citation in an academic exercise or activity.

- Plagiarism: representing, by paraphrase or direct quotation, the published or unpublished work of another person as one's own in any academic exercise or activity without full and clear acknowledgment. It also includes using materials prepared by another person or by an agency engaged in the sale of term papers or other academic materials.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT/TITLE IX

Utah State University is committed to creating and maintaining an environment free from acts of sexual misconduct and discrimination and to fostering respect and dignity for all members of the USU community. Title IX and USU Policy 339 (http://www.usu.edu/policies/339) address sexual harassment in the workplace and academic setting.
The university responds promptly upon learning of any form of possible discrimination or sexual misconduct. Any individual may contact USU’s Office of Equity (https://equity.usu.edu/) for available options and resources or clarification. The university has established a complaint procedure to handle all types of discrimination complaints, including sexual harassment (USU Policy 305 (http://www.usu.edu/policies/305/)), and has designated the Office of Equity Director/Title IX Coordinator as the official responsible for receiving and investigating complaints of sexual harassment.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY AND "I" GRADE POLICY

Students are required to complete all courses for which they are registered by the end of the semester. In some cases, a student may be unable to complete all of the coursework because of extenuating circumstances, but not due to poor performance or to retain financial aid. The term ‘extenuating’ circumstances includes: (1) incapacitating illness which prevents a student from attending classes for a minimum period of two weeks, (2) a death in the immediate family, (3) financial responsibilities requiring a student to alter a work schedule to secure employment, (4) change in work schedule as required by an employer, or (5) other emergencies deemed appropriate by the instructor.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

USU welcomes students with disabilities. If you have, or suspect you may have, a physical, mental health, or learning disability that may require accommodations in this course, please contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) (http://www.usu.edu/drc/) as early in the semester as possible (University Inn # 101, (435) 797-2444, drc@usu.edu (mailto:drc@usu.edu)). All disability related accommodations must be approved by the DRC. Once approved, the DRC will coordinate with faculty to provide accommodations.

Students who are at a higher risk for complications from COVID-19 or who contract COVID-19 may also be eligible for accommodations.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Regardless of intent, careless or ill-informed remarks can be offensive and hurtful to others and detract from the learning climate. If you feel uncomfortable in a classroom due to offensive language or actions by an instructor or student(s) regarding ethnicity, gender, or sexual orientation, contact:

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

In the case of a drill or real emergency, classes will be notified to evacuate the building by the sound of the fire/emergency alarm system or by a building representative. In the event of a disaster that may interfere with either notification, evacuate as the situation dictates (i.e., in an earthquake when shaking ceases or immediately when a fire is discovered). Turn off computers and take any personal items with you. Elevators should not be used; instead, use the closest stairs.

MENTAL HEALTH
Mental health is critically important for the success of USU students. As a student, you may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to learning, such as strained relationships, increased anxiety, alcohol/drug problems, feeling down, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. These mental health concerns or stressful events may lead to diminished academic performance or reduce your ability to participate in daily activities. Utah State University provides free services for students to assist them with addressing these and other concerns. You can learn more about the broad range of confidential mental health services available on campus at Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) (https://counseling.usu.edu).

Students are also encouraged to download the “SafeUT App” (https://healthcare.utah.edu/uni/programs/safe-ut-smartphone-app) to their smartphones. The SafeUT application is a 24/7 statewide crisis text and tip service that provides real-time crisis intervention to students through texting and a confidential tip program that can help anyone with emotional crises, bullying, relationship problems, mental health, or suicide related issues.
