Invites applications for

Assistant Professor,
Forestry/Natural Resources

Closing Date: January 15, 2020
Annual Salary Range: $48,369 - $67,393

Summary
The successful candidate for this full-time, tenure track Assistant Professor, Forestry/Natural Resources position will be responsible for teaching a wide variety of Forestry and Natural Resource courses that may include, but are not limited to: Geospatial Concepts, Introduction to Remote Sensing, Introduction to GIS, Watershed Management, Introduction to Wildland Fire, Timber Harvesting, and Forest Health and Protection.

Additional responsibilities will include aiding in all necessary steps to gain Society of American Foresters (SAF) accreditation, curriculum development, assessment, and establishing relationships with industry partners.

Teaching assignments may include evening and weekend assignments and teaching courses through distance education.

Anticipated start date for this position is Fall 2020.

Preferred Qualifications:

• Master's degree in Forestry or Natural Resources with at least one degree from an SAF-accredited institution
• Bachelor's degree in Forestry, Natural Resources, Wildlife Biology, or related disciplines
• College teaching experience
• Experience with GIS and Spatial Analysis software as well as other discipline specific technology
• Interest and ability in obtaining the Registered Professional Forester license in California

Education and Experience

Minimum requirement:
Any bachelor’s degree and two years of professional experience, or any associate’s degree and six years of professional experience.

Position requires sensitivity to and understanding of the diverse academic, socioeconomic, cultural, disability, and ethnic backgrounds of community college students.

College of the Redwoods values all members of our community and strives to create a diverse, nurturing, honest, and open environment. CR is committed to equal employment opportunity in its employment and encourages applications from underrepresented group members.

Application Process

Apply online at: https://employment.redwoods.edu/

You will need the information listed below to complete the online process.

The following file formats will be accepted for attachments-.doc or pdf.

1. Letter of introduction expressing interest in the position and describing the candidate’s qualifications for the position.
2. Professional résumé or curriculum vitae.
3. Transcripts of all college degrees and courses (unofficial is sufficient for application; official copies will be required of the successful candidate.)
4. A list of three professional references is required. Include the reference’s name, title and current contact information.
5. A statement of Teaching Philosophy.

Incomplete application packets will not be forwarded for consideration by the Selection Committee.

Selection Process

All applications will be reviewed by a representative screening committee. Selected candidates will be invited to appear for a personal interview at College of the Redwoods. Some financial assistance will be available to assist finalists with travel expenses related to interviewing.

Application Procedures

All documents included in your application file become the property of the College and will not be returned. Your file for this opening will not be considered for future openings. New documents must be submitted for each opening.

To be included in the first review, the applicant must complete the application process online by 11:59 p.m. on the first review date. The district reserves the right to keep this position open until filled.

If, because of a disability, you need special services or facilities in order to apply or interview for this opening, please call Human Resources.

Benefits

Medical, dental and vision insurance is provided by the District for all full-time employees and their dependents. Faculty also receive sick leave and personal holidays. Retirement benefits are administered through CalSTRS.

Application and more information is available online at www.redwoods.edu/hr or contact:
College of the Redwoods has a proud history of high-quality education dedicated to student success. As one of 115 public community colleges in the state of California, College of the Redwoods offers wide variety of accessible learning opportunities, including online classes and other distance education options. The college awards Associate of Arts and Associate of Science Degrees as well as Associate in Arts for Transfer and Associate in Sciences for Transfer Degrees and a wide variety of career technical certificates for vocational and professional development. It is an accredited, two-year institution that has articulation agreements with major four-year universities.

College of the Redwoods puts student success first by providing accessible and relevant developmental, career technical, and transfer education. The College partners with the community to contribute to the economic vitality and lifelong learning needs of its service area. The College continually assesses student learning and institutional performance and practices to embrace diversity, to encourage a healthy community environment and to improve upon the programs and services we offer, all to promote student learning.

College of the Redwoods values all members of our community and strives to create a diverse, nurturing, honest, and open environment. CR is committed to equal employment opportunity in its employment and encourages applications from underrepresented group members. We will continuously seek and support a dedicated, highly-qualified staff that is diverse in terms of cultural background, ethnicity, and intellectual perspective and that is committed to fostering a climate of academic freedom and collegiality. We will encourage and reward professional development for all staff and will all share in the responsibility for student outcomes.

College of the Redwoods affirms its responsibility to address the diverse civic needs of the many communities we serve and to provide leadership in the civic, cultural, and economic development of the North Coast region.

For more information or application materials, contact us at:

College of the Redwoods
Office of Human Resources
7351 Tompkins Hill Road
Eureka, CA 95501-9300
phone 707.476.4140
tty 707.476.4443
fax 707.476.4421
email hr@redwoods.edu