

George Lea Founders Scholarship

The George Lea Founders Scholarship is provided by the Public Lands Foundation (PLF). Two $5000 scholarships are offered each year to junior, senior, or masters-level students in natural resource management or public land policy fields of study. The scholarships will be awarded to help with tuition costs for the 2021-2022 school year.

Applications must be sent to dstout@publicland.org and be received on or before March 19, 2021.

Information about the Public Lands Foundation is at: <https://publicland.org/>. A scholarship application form available for download and a brochure explaining the scholarship are located at this site under Programs/Scholarships.

Questions or requests for more information can be directed to David Stout of the Public Lands Foundation at dstout@publicland.org.
